RUSHING LEGISLATION

Both Branches of Congress
Hard at Work.

DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS HELD.

The General Deficiency Bill, the last of the Appropriation Bills, Passed in the House—Bering Sea Appropriation Defeated—The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill Considered in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The general deficiency bill, the last of the regular appropriation bills, passed the house yesterday. Almost the entire day was spent discussing the amendment to paying Great Britain $425,000, the amount of damages agreed upon by Secretary Gresham and Sir Julian Pauncefote, to be due that country under the award of the Paris arbitration tribunal on account of the seizure of some 20 Canadian sealers by the United States previous to the modus vivendi of 1892.

The amendment was strongly attacked by Messrs. Cannon of Illinois, Henderson of Iowa and Hitt of Illinois, on the ground that the amount was unreasonably large; that some of the vessels were owned by citizens of the United States and $875,000 was for constructive or speculative damages (the estimated catch). Only $81,000, they contended, was due Great Britain. Messrs. Breckinridge of Kentucky, McCreary of Kentucky, Hooker of Mississippi and Dingley of Maine supported the amendment, maintaining that the government, no matter how bad the bargain, must carry out the awards of the Paris tribunal in good faith. Mr. Dingley declared that it was preferable to pay Great Britain $425,000 than leave the assessment of damages to an umpire appointed by a foreign power. The amendment carried in committee, but was defeated in the house—112 to 143.

Some excitement was caused by the attempt to strike out in the house the appropriation for an extra month's salary for the employees of the house and senate and the clerks of members, but it failed, and the amendment prevailed, 143 to 108. Motions to reconsider and recommit were voted down as promptly as offered, until the opposition dwindled to a point where it could not get the ayes and nays. It then surrendered, and the bill was passed.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The senate is now working day and night on the appropriation bill in order to complete them before the session closes. The sundry civil appropriation bill was considered with little interruption or delay from 11:30 until 5:30, and again at a night session. An item of $150,000 for purchasing the historic property of the late James G. Blaine in order to prevent its use for theater purposes, occasioned a sharp debate, but was finally agreed to. Other senate amendments agreed to during the day included: The temporary federal building at Chicago, $200,000, and the beginning of a new government building at Chicago, $400,000.

TRAMPS' COOL WORK.

They Drive a Crew From a Freight Train and Break Open and Rob the Cars.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—One of the boldest acts of lawlessness which has occurred in this city for a long time took place in the western suburbs Sunday night. While a Nickel Plate freight train was standing in front of the telegraph office near the Detroit street crossing awaiting orders, a gang of tramps appeared, and with drawn revolvers drove off the crew of the train. The gang then began breaking open freight cars and helping themselves to their contents.

Meanwhile the police had been notified and a patrol wagon loaded with officers soon came upon the scene. The tramps, however, were on the watch, and escaped in the darkness.

Later two men were arrested charged with being members of the gang.

Forbidden the Use of the Mails.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Postmaster General Bissell has issued fraud orders forbidding the use of the mails to Harriet Hummel Kern, Ohio City, O.; H. C. Rupe, South Bend, Ind.; Miss Modelle Miller, New Carlisle, Ind.; and Bertha Benz, Milwaukee. These parties advertised extensively that they had a system which would give immense profit to lady correspondents and the investigation of their schemes by the department resulted in the declaration of fraud.

Whiteway Trying to Borrow.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Feb. 26.—The Whiteway government applied to the imperial government last week for a loan of $2,000,000, pledging the revenue of the colony as security, and permitting two English commissioners to make the expenditure of the money. The imperial government declined to make the loan unless the local administration would consent to a thorough investigation of the colony's affairs by a royal commission beforehand.

Head Cut Off by a Train.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Feb. 26.—Elmer E. Sheets of Cincinnati, while stealing a ride on the bumpers of a Baltimore and Ohio freight, fell under the wheels at this city and had his head cut off. He leaves a wife.

Future of the Ferris Wheel.

UNSHACKLED FOREVER.

Honors For the Clay of the Illustrations Ex-Slave, Fred Douglass.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The remains of Frederick Douglass were conveyed early yesterday morning to the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal church, there to lie in state until the funeral services in the afternoon. Before the removal from Cedar Hill, Anacostia, Mr. Douglass' late residence, brief services for the immediate relatives were conducted by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson of the Anacostia Baptist church. The services consisted simply of a prayer and the reading of the Scriptures.

The Metropolitan church had already been prepared for the reception of the honored body of the dead man, and was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and palms. Among the floral pieces sent the church was a most beautiful design prepared at the instance of the Haytian government. As soon as the casket was placed before the altar, the doors were thrown open, and the people, already waiting in crowds outside, were admitted to the church to pay their last respects. A great crowd passed in and out. While colored persons predominated among the waiting multitudes there were hundreds of white people. The street in front of the church and as far as the cross street on either side was fairly blocked with carriages before the hour of 10 o'clock had arrived.

At 2:15 o'clock the funeral procession entered the main body of the church, headed by the family of the deceased, followed by the honorary pallbearers: Messrs. Bruce, W. H. Wormley, John R. Lynch, John E. Cook, P. B. Pinchback, John R. Francis, F. G. Barbadoes, Captain D. L. Pitcher, Professor E. Messer, Congressman George H. Murray, Dr. C. B. Purvis, John H. Brooks.

The services were extremely long, and it was after 5 o'clock when they were concluded. The body was escorted to the depot by the colored letter-carriers of the district, as well as by a large number of friends of the deceased and his family. The remains were put aboard the 7:10 train for Rochester.

Run Down by a Freight Train.

LINDEN, O., Feb. 26.—A westbound freight train on the Nickel Plate road Sunday ran down a two-horse rig carrying a party of people to church at a road crossing near this place. The injured are: Miss Margaret Hess, aged 17, badly hurt internally; Miss Louise Camp, aged 19, leg and arm broken, and Walter Briggs, driver, slightly injured.

Aged Couple Incarcerated.

DAYTON, O., Feb. 26.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning George Weaver and his wife, an old, infirm couple living alone on a farm seven miles west of here, near Trotwood, were burned to death in their dwelling. Neighbors hastened to the spot, but the flames were so fierce as to prevent all hope of rescue. The fire was still burning at a late hour this morning and so hot that no search of the ruins could be made.

Woman Found Dead—Husband Arrested. ASHLAND, Pa., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Edwin Welch, aged 40 years, was found dead on the floor of the dining room at her house in Mahanoy Place yesterday. She was lying in a pool of blood and badly bruised about the head and body. The examination of the coroner's physician resulted in the arrest of her husband who is held to await further examination.

FRANCE CALLED DOWN

Why Are Our American Cattle Excluded?

WORK FOR MINISTER EUSTIS

A Long and Tedious Examination Is About to Be Begun by Expert Veterinarians to Find Out if American Cattle Are Really Unhealthy or Not—Other Restrictions Feared.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Mr. Enstis, our ambassador to France, will be instructed to enter a prompt and vigorous protest against the French decree just made, excluding American cattle from France. As the decree is ostensibly based on the existence of pleuro-pneumonia and Texas fever in cattle coming from the United States, the ambassador will call for proof of the fact.

That will mean long and tedious expert examinations by veterinarians and much correspondence, which is not expected to be of any more available than that into which Mr. Runyon, our ambassador to Germany, was plunged by the issue of a similar decree by the German government, for it is fully realized here that the allegation that American cattle are unhealthy is the merest pretense in both cases and that the real reason is fear of American competition.

In the case of France the press cable dispatches have shown that the ministry has been urged to the issue of the decree by delegation after delegation representing the numerous and well-organized agricultural societies of the republic, solely for their protection against the American cattle grower. In order to grant the demand and yet, at the same time, to avoid the charge that France was violating the most favored nation clause in its treaty with the United States, which would properly lie if the latter were singled out from other nations for an attack of this kind, it was necessary that recourse should be had to the device which had availed Germany so well of charging unhealthfulness upon American cattle. This change is always hard to rebut owing to the ease with which expert testimony may be had on either side of the case.

The American trade in cattle with France has grown to considerable proportions, the shipments during six months ended Dec. 31 last being 13,441 head, and during the month of January last 801 head.

Secretary Morton was careful about expressing his opinion touching the French decree, but it could be seen that he regarded it as a mere political manifestation and felt that it would not be continued in force for any considerable length of time and that the next change in the French cabinet would probably be followed by the revocation of the decree.

Notwithstanding this the belief is growing and deepening here that these decrees are but forerunners of other and more severe restrictions upon American trade, the next blow, perhaps, being likely to fall upon wheat. It is understood that these are not adopted as retaliatory measures, but are manifestations of the growth of the protective sentiment in continental Europe, and grow out of the necessity the governments are under of conceding something to the great agricultural classes.

Touching the allegation of the existence of disease among American cattle, Secretary Morton says there has not been one case of pleuro-pneumonia in the United States during the past three years, and that even if there had been cattle suffering from Texas fever among the carefully inspected herds shipment to Europe, the disease, being noncontagious, could do no harm there.

TRAIN ROBBERS FOILED.

Well Laid Scheme Falls on Account of an Oversight.

TUCSON, A. T., Feb. 26.—When the westbound overland reached Sycums Pass last night, shortly after 6 o'clock, two masked men appeared on the station platform, armed with six-shooters. One of them got into the engine and covered the fireman and engineer with guns and told them to cut off the car next to the tender, and as soon as this was done, the engineer was ordered to proceed. When they had gone about three miles they stopped.

The bandits carried a sackful of what appeared to be dynamite. This they placed beside the roadbed when the engine started, and then they discovered they had left the express car behind. The bandits indulged in considerable strong talk, and then mounting horses that were fastened to trees nearby, they rode to the south. The engine and car returned to the rest of the train. The passengers were badly scared. Many of them crawled under the seats and remained there until assured that the danger was over.

BROKE A BLOOD VESSEL.

A Peculiar Accident in Which a Young Lady Lost Her Life.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 26.—A peculiar accident occurred in East Nashville yesterday resulting in the almost instant death of Miss Ada Slaughter, a teacher at Ward's female seminary, in this city. Miss Slaughter, Miss Hopkins, also a teacher in the same school, and Misses Pearl White and Janey Bailey, pupils, were driving in a one-horse carriage. One of the shafts broke and before the horse could be stopped the vehicle had veered around and turned over. The shock and fright to Miss Slaughter was so great that it caused the breaking of a blood vessel and she died in 15 minutes from hemorrhage. She was unconscious from the accident until her death.

The other occupants of the vehicle were but slightly injured. The horse was not running away, and the accident was a most peculiar one. Miss Slaughter was a talented teacher, and her sudden and tragic death has caused widespread regret. Her home was in Winchester, Tennessee.

SULLIVAN'S DRUNK.

It May Have Been a Ruse to Get Rid of His Company.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 25.—There is some reason to believe that Sullivan's recent escapade in Florida was a premeditated affair, and not the result of a blind yielding to a passion for drink. Sullivan stated, when here, that he would probably not go any further than Jacksonville with his company. The thing had been a dead failure from the start, and he was tired of being "on the hog." He said he had lost $6,000 already.

The play did not take, and he realized that his company was not composed of actors. Hence, it is believed here that Sullivan's Florida drunk, though genuine, was merely a ruse to shake the crowd he had with him. Sullivan said that he intended as soon as his engagement was completed to go to the northern part of Africa, where he would spend some time getting his system in shape, and, he intimated, train for his next battle.

CHICAGO TYPOS TO TRY IT.

A Daily Paper Without the Aid of Machines.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Articles of incorporation have been filed at Springfield by the West Side Daily Newspaper Publishing company of Chicago. The capital stock is placed at $500,000 and the incorporators are James Griffin, president of the Chicago Typographical union, and George W. Harris and James M. Bale, both members of the organization. The object of the new organization is the establishment of a daily newspaper under the control of the Typographical union. The aim will be to start in with 50,000 bona fide subscribers, and to this end the city will be thoroughly canvassed immediately. No type machines will be used, and in this way many of the union printers who have been thrown out of employment by the introduction of machines will be given work.

OVERDUE VESSELS.

Fifteen Men and Two Cargoes of Lumber Have Probably Been Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26.—The long list of overdue vessels that have no doubt met with disaster during the storm may be added the schooner William C. Wickham, Captain J. B. Ewan. The vessel, with a crew of seven men and a cargo consisting of 250,000 feet of lumber, left Jacksonville Feb. 1 for New York and has not since been heard from.

The schooner Angie L. Green, Captain Lee, from Jacksonville Jan. 30 for Philadelphia, with a cargo of lumber and a crew of eight men, is also considerably overdue. Seafaring men regard safe arrival as doubtful.

Murder Over a Card Game.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 26.—Information has just been received here of a fatal shooting affray that occurred at Shelton Laurel, a wild mountainous section in Madison county. Baxter and Everett Shelton, brothers, were engaged in a game of cards with "Boss" and Jim Stanton, brothers, when a dispute arose, with the result that "Boss" Stanton was shot and instantly killed by Baxter Shelton and Everett Shelton was mortally wounded by Jim Stanton. Bad blood had existed for some time.

FIGHT WITH BANDITS.

Several Persons Were Shot and Much Powder Burned.

TWO MEN LANDED IN JAIL.

The Third One of the Suspects Makes His Escape—The Men Who Robbed the Bank at Griswold, Iowa, Discovered at Council Bluffs—The Arrested Men Refuse to Talk.

OMAHA, Feb. 26.—A Council Bluffs special to The Bee says: A spirited fight between the bank robbers and the local authorities occurred here last night, in which several persons were shot and much powder burned. Officers had been notified to watch for the men, who yesterday morning robbed the Griswold (Ia.) bank.

Just after dusk, as one of the officers was patrolling his beat, he noticed a man sitting in the office of the Kiel hotel who answered the description telegraphed from Griswold. Deputy Sheriff O'Brien was notified and concluded that he was one of the men wanted and called to his assistance Deputy Sheriff Hooker, and in company with Officers Peterson and Ware the party entered the office and invited the suspect to jail.

As the five men left the hotel, two other hotel guests rose and followed, keeping several yards behind. Just as they reached the courthouse, O'Brien dropped behind, telling his prisoner to walk in front. As he did this, the two men who had been following the party, commenced firing at the officers. The officers returned the fire, the prisoner and the two strangers separating from the officers and shooting as they ran.

For some minutes the fusillade was kept up, citizens and other officers joining in the battle, which had been general all along the line until the desperadoes were overcome and two of them placed under arrest and taken to jail, where they gave their names as John Reilly and James Wilson. As soon as they were placed behind the bars the officers started to look for the wounded, and in the search they discovered O'Brien severely wounded, a bullet having struck him in the abdomen, entering the body and lodging near the spine. Reilly was hit in the groin, the bullet penetrating some two inches.

The third man escaped and fled toward the river, pursued by a posse of citizens, but he managed to elude them. It is thought he is now in Omaha and that the police of that city have been notified to be on the lookout for the man. In searching the men at the jail their pockets yielded a large number of postage stamps and a quantity of small change, which fact convinces the officers that the two parties now under arrest are members of the gang that robbed the Griswold bank.

While the shooting was going on Motorman Scullen met with a peculiar accident. His train was in the vicinity of the battle, and just as he was about to seek the section of the inside of his car a bullet struck a building nearby, and, glancing, flew back and struck him between the eyes, cutting the flesh to the bone.

At the jail the men who are under arrest refused to talk upon the subject of the robbery. They say that they are farmhands. In regard to the shooting they state that they were scared and did not know the men with whom they were fighting were officers and that they were shot, as they supposed, to defend their lives.

STRUGGLE WITH A MAD DOG.

The Brute Choked to Death Before He Would Release His Mold.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 26.—A man named Henry King of Carbon, north of this city, had a terrible experience yesterday with a large dog suffering with hydrophobia. While leaving his gate, a strange dog with foam flying from his mouth, and exhibiting all the signs of hydrophobia, sprang upon him and seized him by the left wrist, driving his teeth to the bone.

King tried to shake the dog off, but he hung on, when King grasped the dog by his shaggy neck and began choking him. The animal never released his hold until he was stone dead, when his jaws had to be forced open. King's arm was terribly lacerated. He came to this city at once and had the wounds seared, after which he went to Terre Haute to have the madstone applied.

Str in Educational Circles.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 26.—There is a great stir in educational circles in this city, occasioned by the arrest of ex-County Superintendent W. J. Griffin on a charge of being engaged in propagating a fraud on the public schools of this county. Griffin, it is claimed, procured of his friend, Jacob Wade, who succeeded him in office after he had been expelled, a copy of the questions prepared by the state superintendent for the examination of applicants for teachers' license, and, after making many copies of the same, sold them to aspiring teachers at $10 each.

Four-Handed Fight With Knives.

ENGLISH, Ind., Feb. 26.—News has just reached here from Bird's Eye of a four-handed fight with knives yesterday morning between Charles and Ed Cummins, brothers, on one side and Sump and John Land, brothers, on the other. John Lane and Charles Cummins will likely die. Both are cut about the face, breast and shoulders. All were drunk.

Fatal Stabbing Affray.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUE-DAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1895.

Generally fair weather; slightly cooler.

It begins to look like the contest for the gubernatorial nomination has narrowed down to Hardin and Clay on the Democratic side, with the chances in favor of the former; but there are strong forces behind Clay and things are very uncertain when you get into politics.

One Kentucky Republican has thrown off the Bradley yoke, and declares he won't vote for "Windy Willie," if he should be nominated. This "kicker" is P. L. Trunnel, of Louisville, and he comes to the front in a protest against the "silly trash and rot," the Commercial of that city has been publishing to boost Bradley for the nomination.

There is entirely too much bitterness shown by the Democratic papers of the State in discussing the financial question. Congress is the only body that can legislate on this question and Democratic editors would do well to bottle their enthusiasm and cork up their bitterness until the next Congressional election. Let's "get together" in the State fight.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

ORANGEBURG.

Miss May Crosby visited at Plumville Saturday evening.

Marion Tolle and wife spent several days with his father, Mr. R. P. Tolle.

Mrs. Amanda Calvert spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. A. Calvert, of our village.

Mr. John Yancy and two of his sisters went up to Vanceburg Wednesday last. He reports an enjoyable time.

Uncle Campbell King is on the sick list. His friends think him on the decline. He is in the eighty-third year of his age.

The family who was living in George Calvert's house when it burned saved nothing, not even their clothes, and barely escaped with their lives. The neighbors supplied them with clothing.

The exercises at our school on Washington's birthday were first-class in every particular, doing honor to both teachers and pupils. Although there were prizes given yet the real merits of all were about equal, and none have cause either to rejoice or feel disappointed, and if the judges could they would have considered the whole school as only one scholar. So say the judges.

Mr. George Calvert is the most energetic farmer we have. He has not lost a day from his work all this winter. He is preparing for a big crop of tobacco this year. He has bought the old Gossage place and expected to have moved there this spring but has been unfortunate. The house burned down Wednesday night. His wife, who is an industrious woman, raised close to one hundred turkeys this year for which she realized 50 cents per pound.

Your reporter spent a very pleasant afternoon with W. T. Calvert who is a regular old "Virginia gentleman." Mr. Calvert entertained him by showing him his fine stock of horses, principally among which is his fine Norman stallion; and discussing free "turnpikes" and religion. After partaking of a splendid supper, which was presided over by his daughter, Mrs. Darnall, who is a pleasant hostess, we returned home considering the time pleasantly spent and wondering why our lives in this world could not all be spent as pleasantly.

GERMANTOWN.

J. F. Walton sold to Dan Mitchell a fine saddle gelding, price unknown.

There is much sickness in the Fern Leaf neighborhood. Among those who are very sick is Daniel Norris, Esq.

Miss Carrie Larew, of Bourbon County, has been visiting the family of Evan Lloyd returned to Robert Perrine's on Sunday.

One of our bright little girls was visiting relatives in Maysville, and having a sore throat the family gave her coal oil. The child told them "they would kill her and if they did she would tell her papa."

Bessie, the seven-year-old daughter of Aleck Fowler, has a cataract in her left eye which has been forming for some time. Her mother will take her to Cincinnati this week to have it removed. She is a bright, sweet little girl and everybody wishes that the operation may be a successful one.

There was a social gathering of the young people of this and the neighborhood at the residence of J. M. Walton on last Friday evening. Miss Mary assisted by her brothers, Moss and Simma, entertained their young friends delightfully until the small hours of the night.

MAYSVILLE.

Last Sunday was a lovely day.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prather is not so well—her mind is very much impaired.

Dr. R. R. Wheatley, of Lexington, is with us for a few days. He is looking well.

Fred Fox and John Clift had a tussle one day last week and Fred has a sprained ankle which gives him some trouble.

Dr. R. R. Wheatley sold his house and lot last Saturday evening to the highest bidder, James Ray Robinson was the lucky man. Price two thousand dollars, one half cash and the balance in twelve months.

On Wednesday, February 27th, the C. and O. will sell round-trip tickets to Cincinnati at one fare, $1.75. Tickets good on any train. Matinees at all theaters on this date.

THE BLAND INSURANCE CASE.

A Wanderer Heard From—News From Mt. Olivet and Robertson County.

Sardis has a new merchant tailor. Eggs have touched 23 cents per dozen here. The liquor question is gradually subsiding. There will be several fox chases the coming week.

Sunday was a gentle reminder of spring weather.

Thomas J. Farley, engineer at the flouring mills, is sick.

The telephone office was moved to the bank building Friday.

W. H. Wood, of Paris, was in the county the past week, visiting relatives.

Dick Parks, of Carlisle, is the latest mentioned as a possible Legislative candidate.

Master Tommie Woodward is lying very ill of fever at the home of his aunt, Mrs. L. J. Kain.

James Politt and family, of Mt. Carmel, are guests of Samuel Holmes and wife, Mrs. Politt's sister.

And still the kicking grows over the increased taxation to which our citizens have been subjected.

W. J. McKinney, after an illness of several months, is about again, and looks better than he has for years.

Marshal E. Meadows has again taken charge of his office. He is yet very weak as a result of his protracted illness.

Joseph Williams and wife, of Peed, visited Captain Bayne and family the past week. The Captain is gradually growing worse.

Elder W. A. Morrison and Rev. W. A. Penn filled their appointments Sunday at the Christian and M. E. Church, South, respectively.

Ike Smitson, a once familiar denizen of Bee Lick, but now of Mason, crossed the line Sunday to let his old friends here know that he was still among the living.

Persons needing good work horses, cheap, should come to Robertson, as the county has a large surplus in this line. As feed is scarce, good bargains can be had.

Replying to the Ledger's 'Olivet reporter, John W. Zoller says he is not, never, has been, never expects to be, a candidate for the Postmastership or any other office.

Judge Robert Buckler, of 'Olivet, and Hon. J. T. Simon, of Cynthiana, have formed a partnership in the practice of law. A good team and we predict will meet with success.

Dr. J. E. Wells has received direct from Germany a supply of the now famous antitoxin diphtheria remedy. It is a costly fluid, but the Doctor always keeps abreast of the times in his profession.

It is said James Mayberry will be brought here from Carlisle, where he is now in jail, and tried on an indictment charging him with shooting at Constable W. A. Kenton, which occurred on the streets of 'Olivet about five years ago.

Tom Port Haley has returned from a two years' residence in Colorado, minus $2,600 which he took with him when he left his good old Kentucky home. Truly he can sing, "There is no place like home," as he always prospered in the old Commonwealth.

Cain Smitson, an aged and well known citizen of the county, is very sick of pneumonia at his home north of 'Olivet. Years ago he was a leading landholder, but security debts and the flowing bowl wiped away his substance, and a pension given him by Uncle Sam now supports him in his old age.

It is reported that William Hall, formerly of Abigail, but now living in Bourbon County, has been dropped from Uncle Sam's pension role. He was a private in the Sixteenth Kentucky during the war and was drawing about $10 a month. Mr. Hall's friends hope the report is untrue, as he is worthy and deserving.

Somebody tell us what a "low tax" rate Board of Trustees means? The old Board made the assessment 30 cents one year and only 25 cents the second year, on the $100, and even those rates were considered high. A leading citizen who was assessed at $5,000, offers to take that amount for his property and can find no purchaser.

Saturday night some miscreant took Policy Bradley's horse from the hitching rack near Heart's stable, and after riding it hard all night hitched it in a lot in the rear of Jasper Jett's late residence. When found Sunday morning the poor animal was nearly chilled to death. There is no punishment too severe for the man who is guilty of such a barbarous act.

After a lapse of nearly five years, a letter has been received from Charles Spurgeon Young, second son of our townsman, F. M. Young. He is located now at Pittsburg, Pa., after making a circuit of almost the entire world, and writes that he will soon visit his old home. There was joy beyond measure among the home folks, who had almost given up hope of ever seeing or hearing of him again.

The tax-payers will doubtless quit kicking to some extent if the stock ordinance is strictly enforced. The writer has raised, or attempted to raise, fifteen gardens in 'Olivet, fourteen of which were partially, if not entirely, destroyed by hogs and other stock, and not a cent damages has he ever received in return. If a man has an ambition to make a stock lot of his town premises, he should keep his stock enclosed with substantial fencing and not expect the community to do such work for him.

In the Bland insurance case at Carlisle last week, F. P. Bland got judgment for $1,000, interest and costs. The case was taken from this county on a change of venue. It has, (in connection with a similar suit for $800, for which Bland got judgment in the Robertson Circuit Court last fall), been in the courts nearly five years. Bland lost his entire stock of goods in the 'Olivet fire of February, 1890, and carried an insurance of $1,800, which the companies refused to pay. Hence the suit. It is said there will be appeals in both cases.

The River.

The Reliance was torn loose at Augusta by the ice yesterday but was again caught and tied up.

Very little ice running this morning, and the river is probably clear now from Cincinnati to Point Pleasant.

The gauge read 12 6-10 feet this morning; falling fast, a natural result of the quick passage of the back water from the gorges below.

The C. and O. ferry, Susie Brown, at Portsmouth, struck a snag in trying to get out of the way of the ice and sank. She will be raised.

The Silver Wave was crowded out on the shore at Vanceburg, had her wheel torn off and a forty-foot hole torn in her hull by the ice Sunday evening.

Captain Phister is making an effort to cut a channel through the shore ice on this side, so as at least to allow the ferryboat to reach this side. This shore ice is very rotten but still holds fast.

MARRYING PEOPLE.

A Case Pending Where a Minister's Authority to Tie the Nuptial Knot is Questioned.

The case of the Commonwealth against the Rev. J. B. Simons on a warrant for solemnizing the marriage of Jack Harrington and Mrs. Anna Woerline without authority was heard before Squire Branel Monday afternoon. The defendant was held to answer the charge at the next term of the Circuit Court and was released on $150 bond, which was promptly given. County Attorney Adair appeared for the prosecution and Mr. John L. Whitaker for the defense.

Mr. Simons was licensed by the Mason County Court to solemnize the marriage ceremony, but in March last his surety, Isaac L. Cobb, moved the court to issue a rule against him to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Mr. Simons made no response to this rule, and on May 30, 1894, the County Court revoked his license. Mr. Simons afterward, in July, applied for and received license from the Robertson County Court, and he was acting under and by virtue of his Robertson County license when he solemnized the Harrington marriage in this city a few weeks ago, and relies on this license for defense.

County Attorney Adair contends that license from the Robertson County Court confers no authority upon Mr. Simons to solemnize marriages in any other county than Robertson County, and especially gave him no authority to marry people in Mason County. Mr. Adair also contends that the residence of Mr. Simons was in Maysville when he applied for license to the Robertson County Court, and the license there issued is null and void because he was not residing in Robertson County at the time of the application and grant.

Harrington has been held over to the Circuit Court, charged with bigamy, and the trial of the preacher will be watched with interest. The penalty is not exceeding twelve months in jail or not exceeding $1,000 fine, or both fine and imprisonment.

WEDDED A WIDOW.

"Uncle Ben" Hollis and Mrs. Angeline Conrad Happy at Last—The Groom Nearly Eighty.

The BULLETIN's Germantown correspondent says:

"The long agony is over and Benjamin O. Hollis and Mrs. Angeline Conrad were married at the M. E. Church parsonage at this place by the pastor, Rev. Hughes, on Sunday, February 24th. The bride is a blooming widow of some forty-five years of age. The groom is one of Bracken's most worthy and substantial citizens, of near eighty years of age, was born and has always lived half way between our town and the county seat.

"These parties have attracted a great deal of attention, and much has been said and printed, some of it true, but the most of it false and sensational. It is true that this old gentleman was infatuated with the widow, was a monomaniac on the subject of marriage, was willing to make her a liberal bequest. It is also true that his children were bitterly opposed to the marriage, but the outside world will always look at it as a business and financial transaction all around, as he quieted their opposition by a deed to forty acres of land.

"He has five children to each of whom he gave deeds for forty acres of land, leaving for himself and his bride two hundred and twenty-five acres.

"He was not married in haste and we trust will not repent at his leisure."

THE BASE BALL FEVER.

It is Beginning to Manifest Itself. Maysville Ought to Have a Good Team This Season.

The base ball fever has been manifesting itself in Maysville since the spring-like weather set in a few days ago, and the "fans" will not be satisfied with anything short of a first-class team and good grounds.

But where can a good park be had? That's the first question to be settled, for without good grounds it is not very probable that any great effort will be made to organize a team.

The writer's information is that the park at the fair grounds can not be had this year. Local lovers of the National sport have always cast longing eyes on the big lot in the heart of the Sixth ward, and if part of it could be leased Maysville would soon have one of the best base ball parks in the State.

The members of the street railway company ought to interest themselves in this matter and help the boys secure good grounds. A good team and good grounds will put many a dollar into the company's treasury that will not go there otherwise.

The only other grounds suitable for a "diamond" are the old trotting park on Forest avenue, but that is two squares away from the street railway, and it is not known whether the owner would lease it for such purposes.

Local lovers of the sport should get together and see if arrangements can not be made for a good park and a first-class team.

LETTERS, says Lord Bacon, as are written from wise men, are of all the words of man, in my judgment, the best. The following letter was written in 1842 by Sydney Smith to Charles Dickens. It is characteristic, and reflects an opinion, which should be of some weight. "I accept your obliging invitation conditionally. If I am invited by any man of greater genius than yourself, or one by whose works I have been more completely interested, I will repudiate you and dine with the more splendid phenomenon of the two." Mr. Vincent will give you at the High School to-night a joint review of the public and private life of Charles Dickens, an author of whom it may be truly said: "He left his honesty and truth, his independent tongue and pen."

MURDER MYSTERY.

Remains of a Man Found, Apparently Burned at the Stake.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Evidences of what the police think is a frightful murder mystery were found Monday, when two children discovered the mutilated body of a man in a lonely locality at Ninety-third street and Western avenue. The body, which was that of a man about 25 years old, was found in a sitting posture, leaning against a tree. The hands, legs and lower part of the body were badly burned, deep gashes were found in the head and about the waist were the remnants of a charred and singed rope.

The theory that the man had been tied and burned to death was at first laughed at by the police officers, but later investigation seemed to prove, either that he had been murdered and an attempt made to conceal the crime by burning the body, or that he had really been burned at the stake.

That the man could have been burned to death was hardly thought probable by the police, but the spot where the body was found is an isolated one on the prairie and a considerable distance from any dwellings. The man had evidently been dead for some time, as the feet had been gnawed to the bones by dogs. The face was not badly mutilated and the officers hope for an identification.

The body is supposed to be that of Fred Holzner, a butcher of this city. Letters found on the corpse bore that address, but were deciphered with great difficulty. A large amount of kerosene had been poured over the body in order that it might burn more rapidly. From the letters, it is supposed the man had a sister in St. Clair, Mich., named Wilhelmina Wulf. The last seen of Holzner was three weeks ago when, with $250 in his possession, he went out to buy cattle.

Late yesterday evening the police arrested a saloonkeeper named Marsen and took him to the Thirty-fifth street station where he was subjected to a thorough examination. He denied any knowledge of Holzner's death further than that the latter had been in his saloon on the day before his appearance was known. Marsen will be held to await the verdict of the coroner's jury.

It was learned that Holzner made an appointment with Marsen to leave for Elgin Wednesday morning, Jan. 30. At 6 o'clock that morning he called at the saloon, where he remained an hour, and then left with the saloonkeeper for Emerald avenue and Thirty-fourth street to buy a cow. Marsen asserts that on the way they met a man, who stopped them and began to talk with Holzner concerning the purchase of an ice wagon. Marsen says he left them talking, and went back to his saloon, and has not seen Holzner since.

Fire in a Print Shop.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 26.—Fire yesterday partially destroyed the plant of the Crown Lithographing company and the Housekeeper Publishing company, both owned by the same men, involving a loss of about $60,000. Several employees and firemen were slightly hurt by jumping from windows and falling glass. The plant was located in the old Centenary Methodist Episcopal church building, erected in 1866 and for many years the finest church edifice in the northwest.

Justice Jackson Improving.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 26.—A great change for the better has been experienced by United States Justice Howell E. Jackson, and his family are now hopeful that at no distant day he will be able to resume his place on the bench. The dropsy tendencies which caused alarm have disappeared and his condition shows a decided improvement in every way. From being a dangerously sick man he is able to walk out of doors and if the good weather continues he will soon resume his usual recreation of horseback riding.

All Quiet Along the Frontier.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 26.—Everything reported on the Guatemala-Mexico frontier as quiet. Hopes of peaceful settlement continues. No change in negotiations. Delays are attributed to Guatemalan Minister De Leon. The government continues receiving offers from abroad of men and arms in case of war. Several English naval officers have offered their services lately.

He Is Identified.

Death in a Mine.

MASSILLON, O., Feb. 26.—A fall of rock from the roof instantly killed John Mong yesterday at the Miller Hill coal mine. He was 21 years old and unmarried.

Why It Was Overdue.

ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 26.—The British bark Dunreign, long overdue from Valparaiso, arrived here yesterday afternoon. Fifteen days ago Pilot Staples went aboard the vessel, and the same evening brought her to within a mile of the lights at the mouth of the Columbia. An easterly gale came on and blew them to sea, where they have been ever since trying to get in. The Dunreign is very light, and the pilot says wholly unmanageable.

Never Satisfied.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Feb. 26.—The warm weather of the past few days is doing considerable damage to the logging industry in this section. Loggers who two weeks ago looked forward to a very profitable season are discouraged. Another week of such weather will mean thousands of dollars loss to the loggers who depended on February and March to make the profit of the season.

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

Furnished by the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company.

The past week brought a ray of sunshine to the holder of old tobacco. There was an advance on these goods of from one to four cents per pound, the fine grades showing the largest proportion. This improvement in price helps to show how small a part of the holdings are really fine tobacco, or at least how small a proportion has retained its good qualities. For the large offerings of these goods, which were brought about by the advance, showed an overbearing quantity of unsweet and darkened tobacco, of which, of course, the increase in prices, though quite material, was not as large as on that part with color and perfectly sweet. We hope that the improvement has come to stay, but this remains to be seen when new tobacco is again in market in larger quantities, and this will presently be the case, as the weather is moderating, and preparations are everywhere making for shipment.

There was also much quicker bidding on new stock, and a larger proportion of good tobacco in the offerings. A general advance can be quoted in these goods, and as there remains only a comparatively short time for winter order offerings we should think that a continuance of the present better market would be quite probable, and we would advise our shippers to take advantage of it.

The temporary interruption which our business has suffered at the Bodmann Warehouse, through the fire, is now completely remedied, and ample preparations have been made to take care of the shipments to that house, and the patrons of the same will find the usual good care and prompt attention given to their business.

REX MORITUR EXSUL.

"We know no king, no God, no master, we!"
What wonder when your passions know no master?
When morbid, moonstruck, measureless vanity,
The mock of nations, whirl you faster
Toward the steep doom of downfall and disaster—
A ruin deeper than the unfathomed sea?
Vain glorious fools, your chronic rage is vain!
Birth royal is nature's gift, as brawn or brain,
And natural right thrones high above your mob
Of silly mouths and maws, whose slender sense
The froth of individual impotence
Stirs to ridiculous rage that fain would rob
The sun of right to shine in heaven, if thence Absinthe nerves might thrill and pothouso pulses throb.

MME. ALBANI.

An Incident in Which Patti Answered a Remark About Her.

To a writer in The Woman at Home Mme. Albani has been giving some details of her life. "My voice is a certain amount of care to me," she said. "You think that it always sounds fresh and clear?" Well, I watch over it and never allow it to become tired if I can help it. On the days I am engaged to sing at the opera I do not talk above a whisper for many hours beforehand, besides which I believe in careful diet. Tea I forbid myself. Bordeaux I find excellent. And sometimes, between the acts of an opera, I take, through a straw, a cup of bouillon made in the French way, which I find very restorative."

Mme. Albani could sing any tune sung to her long before she could speak. "My sister," she added, "will tell you that she distinctly remembers my first soprano note—a real note, long sustained. We were playing together in our cot in the early morning before the household were astir, and, baby though she, too, was, she has not forgotten the effect made upon her. At 8 years old I actually entered the musical profession. Ah, do not laugh! It is true. I made a little 'tournee' of some months' duration and was much petted and spoiled wherever I went. Then a few years later I was sent to be educated at a convent and engaged to take the soprano solo at a mass."

There is a good—and a true—story of how one day Adelina Patti, when walking down Regent street one morning with her first husband, the Marquis de Caux, stopped at the windows of the stereoscopic company. There were shown, side by side, photographs of herself and the debutante, Mlle. Emma Albani. Patti stood close to the window and was unnoticed by a young man lounging in the background. "Look," he exclaimed in a loud and jubilant voice, "at that photograph of Albani. She's the new prima donna, and everybody is raving over her. Patti will be nowhere very soon. That's one thing certain!" And Patti, turning round suddenly upon the speaker, made him a swift little courtesy. "Thank you, sir," she exclaimed, her eyes sparkling with mischief. The man was rooted to the spot with amazement. Patti stopped just an instant to enjoy the effect she had created and then tripped off laughing through the crowd on her way home.
